

KMC Orientation Program 2023

The orientation program of KMC, NID Assam was held on July 31, 2023. An informative demonstration of various services, facilities, practices, and KMC policies was given by the Head Librarian to the newly admitted students. The orientation program comprised of a range of activities including a guided tour to the library and introducing to its various sections. The students were also introduced to the automated RFID-based access solutions and systems as well as to the Web-OPAC of KMC which enabled them to search for books, journals, and other reading materials effectively. The orientation program provided a means of holistic understanding of the library resources and services which will empower the students in their academic pursuits.
