NID Assam will award the contract to the successful Bidder, out of the Bidders who have responded to NID Assam's quotation as referred above, who has been determined to qualify to perform the contract satisfactorily, and whose Bid has been determined to be substantially responsive and is the lowest evaluated Bid. Work order will be provided to the successful bidder.
2. The employer reserves the right to postpone the date for presentation and opening of Quotations and will give timely notice of any such postponement to the prospective Bidders.
3. Acceptance or rejection of any quotation is left entirely to the discretion of the authority empowered to deal with the matter and no query/ explanation can be demanded by any Bidder for the cause of rejection of his quotation.
4. If the Bidder deliberately gives wrong information in his Quotation or creates circumstances for the acceptance of his quotation, the NID Assam reserves the right to reject such Quotation at any stage.
5. If a Bidder seeks clarifying his quotations or rates, this should only be done in a separate covering letter. No material modifications to the specifications, item descriptions, contract clause, etc. will however be entertained. The contents of a covering letter sent along with the quotation will be considered as part of the quotation. If any of these conditions admitted for consideration has a financial bearing on the cost quoted, the additional cost arising out of these conditions will be added for comparative evaluation of quotations.
6. By submitting a quotation for the work, a Bidder will be deemed to have satisfied himself by actual inspection of the site and locality of the work, that the rates quoted by him in the quotation will be adequate to complete such work according to the specifications and conditions attached there to and he has taken into account all conditions and difficulties that may be encountered during its progress and to have quoted labour and material rates which shall include cost of materials with taxes, Octroi and other duties, lead, lift, loading and unloading, freight for materials, and all other charges including the furnishing of all plant, Equipment, tools, scaffolding and other facilities and services, necessary or proper for the completion and maintenance of the work, except such as may be otherwise expressly provided for in the contract documents for the completion and maintenance of the work to the entire satisfaction of the Engineer.
7. The successful Bidder shall make his own arrangements for all materials, except as specified in the contract, if any.
8. The quantities shown in the attached schedule are given as a guide and approximate only and are subject to variation according to the needs of the Employer. The Employer accepts no liability for their accuracy. The Employer does not guarantee work under each item of the schedule.
9. Each page of the quotation shall be signed by the Bidder. Quotation by partnership or joint family firm may be signed in the firm's name by one of the partners or managers or any other duly authorized representative followed by the name and designation of the person so signing. An attested copy of the partnership deed must accompany the quotation of any partnership firm. Quotations by a company shall be signed with the name of the company by a person authorized on this behalf and Power of Attorney or other satisfactory proof showing that the person signing the quotation documents on behalf of the company is duly authorized to do so, shall accompany the quotation. The Employer will not be bound by any Power of Attorney granted by the Bidders or by changes in the composition of the firm, made after the execution of the contract. It may, however, recognize such Power of Attorney and changes after obtaining proper legal advice, the cost of which may be chargeable to the contractor.

10. With their quotations the Bidders shall submit by manually signing all schedules, specifications, GCC, special conditions, etc. in token of acceptance thereof. The signature on the quotation schedule alone shall also be deemed to be taken as acceptance of all these.
11. If a Bidder expires after the submission of his quotation or after the acceptance of his quotation the Employer may deem such quotation as cancelled. If a partner of the firm expires after the submission of their quotation, the Employer may deem such quotation cancelled UNLESS THE FIRM RETAINS its character.
12. If the Bidder has a relative employed in any capacity in the NID, ASSAM, he shall inform the authority calling for quotations of the said fact when submitting his quotation, failing which his contract may be rescinded. If the said fact subsequently comes to light, he shall be liable to make good to the Employer any loss or damage resulting from such cancellation.
13. No contract work, however petty, may be carried out except under and in accordance with a duly executed agreement or on a special written authority from a duly authorized officer of the Employer.
14. No agreement is valid unless signed by the contractor or his duly authorized agent and by a competent person on behalf of the Employer.
15. The Form of Quotation, Invitation to Quotation, Instruction to Bidder, General Conditions of Contract, Special Conditions of Contract, Specifications, Drawing and the rates and amount accepted against the items of the Quotation schedule together with the quotation covering letter, and all correspondence entered into between the Employer and the Bidder prior to the issue of the Letter of Acceptance and the Letter of Commencement awarding the work shall form the contract.
16. If there is any conflict between any of the provisions in the special conditions and those in any of the other documents referred to, the provisions in the special conditions shall prevail.
17. If there is any difference between the description in the specification and the works items in the quotation schedule, the work items in the Quotation schedule shall prevail for determining the rates.
18. In the event of any discrepancy between the rate quoted in the Quotation in words and these quoted in figures, the rates quoted in words shall be controlled.
19. Acceptance of the quotation will be intimated to the successful Bidder through letter of award /work order.

“Contract” means the contract entered between the Principal and Contractors.

1. Subcontracts: -

i. The Supplier shall not assign to others, in whole or in part, their obligation to perform under the contract, except with NID, Assam’s prior written consent.

2. Commitments of the Principal: - The Principal commits itself to take all measures necessary to prevent corruption (inducement to violate duty assigned by its employees) and to observe the following principles:

i. No employee of the principal, personally or through family members or any third person, will in connection with all stages of quotationing or the execution of Contract, demand or take a promise, or accept, for him/herself or any third person, any material or immaterial benefit which he/she is notlegally entitled to.

ii. The principal will, during the quotation process, treat all Bidders with equity and reason. The principal will, before and during the quotation process, provide to all Bidders the same information and will not provide to any Bidder any information/clarification through which the Bidder could obtain an advantage in relation to the quotation process or the Contract execution.

iii. If the Principal obtains information on the conduct of any of its employees which is a criminal offence under the relevant Anticorruption Laws of India/guidelines of Govt./guidelines of CVC/guidelines or Principal, or if there be a substantive suspicion in this regard, the principal will inform its Vigilance Department and in addition can initiate disciplinary actions.

3. Commitments of the Bidder/Contractor: -The Bidder/Contractor commits himself to take all measures necessary to prevent corruption. He commits himself to observe the following principles during his participation in the quotation process and during the Contract execution.

i. The Bidder/Contractor will not directly or through any other person(s) or firm, offer, promise or give to the principal, or to any of the principal’s employees involved in the quotation process or the execution of the Contract or to any third person any material or immaterial benefit which he/she is not legally entitled to in order to obtain, in exchange, an advantage during the quotation process or to vitiate the principal’s quotation process or the execution of the Contract.

ii. The Bidder/Contractor will not enter with other Bidders into any illegal agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal. This applies to prices, specifications, certifications, subsidiary contractors, submission or non-submission of bids or actions to restrict - competitiveness or to vitiate the principal's quotation process or the execution of the contract.

- iii. The Bidder/Contractor will not commit any criminal offence under the relevant Anti-corruption Laws of India; further, the Bidder/Contractor will not use improperly, for purposes of competition or personal gain, or pass onto others, any information provided by the principal as part of the business relationship, regarding plans, technical proposals, and business details, including information contained or transmitted electronically.
 - iv. The Bidder/Contractor will, when presenting his bid, disclose all payments he has made, is committed to, or intends to make to agents, brokers, or any other intermediaries in connection with the award of the Contract.
 - v. The Bidder/Contractor will not instigate third persons to commit offences outlined above or be an accessory to such offences.

4. Obligation to Ensure Compliance: -

- i. Each Party will take all reasonable steps to ensure that the provisions of this Agreement which are binding on it are complied with by all its staff, consultants, parent and associated and subsidiary companies, agents, sub-contractors, and suppliers (if applicable).

5. Dis-qualification from quotation process and exclusion from future contracts: -

- i. If the Bidder, before Contract award, has committed a transgression through a violation of any of the terms under Clause 3.ii or any other form such as to put his reliability or credibility as bidder into question, the principal is entitled to disqualify the Bidder from the quotation process or to terminate the Contract if already signed, for such reason.
- ii. If the Bidder/Contractor has committed a transgression through a violation of any of the terms under clause 3.ii or in any other form such as to put his reliability or credibility into question, the principal is entitled also to exclude the Bidder/Contractor from future Contract award processes. The imposition and duration of the exclusion will be determined by the severity of the transgression. The severity will be determined by the circumstances of the case, in particular the number of transgressions, the position of the transgressors within the Company hierarchy of the bidder/Contractor and the amount of the damage. The exclusion will be imposed for a minimum of 6 months and a maximum of 3 years.
- iii. If the bidder/Contractor can prove that he has restored/recouped the damage caused by him and has installed a suitable corruption prevention system, the principal may revoke the exclusion prematurely.
- iv. A transgression is considered to have occurred if, considering all available evidence, no reasonable doubt is possible.

6. Previous Transgression:

- i. The Bidder hereby declares that no previous transgressions occurred in the last 3 (three) years with any other Company in any country or with any other Public Sector Enterprise in India and, as such, there is no case of his exclusion from the tender process.
- ii. The Bidder hereby concedes that if he has made/makes incorrect statement regarding this aspect, he can be disqualified from the tender process or the Contract, if already awarded, can be terminated for that reason.

7. Breaches of this Agreement: -

- i. If any party believes that there is prima facie evidence that there has been a failure by a party to comply with any provision of this agreement, such Party will take the following actions:
- ii. It will report full details of such suspected non-compliance to the Chief Executives of each of the Parties.

- iii. If any such non-compliance has been carried out, or assisted by an individual who is a member of a professional association, and such non-compliance may constitute a breach of any disciplinary code of such professional association, such Party may report such matter to the professional association.
- iv. If such non-compliance may constitute a criminal offence, either in the country in which the contract is being carried out, or in the home country of the Organization or individual which carried out or assisted such non-compliance, such Party may report such matter to the criminal authorities in those territories.
- v. If any Party breaches any provision of this Agreement, the other Parties may, in addition to the rights under this agreement, claim damages against the defaulting Party, and exercise any other rights they may have against the defaulting party.
- vi. The Parties will take appropriate disciplinary or enforcement action against any of their staff, consultants, parent and associated and subsidiary companies, agents and suppliers who cause or assist in any breach of any provision of this agreement.

8. Force majeure: -

- i. If at any time during the continuance of this contract, the performance in whole or in part by either party or any obligation under this contract shall be prevented or delayed by reason of any war , hostility acts of the public enemy, civil commotion, fires, floods, explosive epidemics, quarantine, restriction or other acts of God, strikes & lockout (hereinafter referred to as eventualities), pandemic (Covid-19), then, provided notice of the happening of such eventuality is given by either party to the other within 15 days from the date of occurrence thereof, neither party have any claim for damage against the other in respect of such non-performance or delay in performance and deliveries/construction work under this contract shall be resumed as soon as practicable after such eventuality has come to an end of account to exist and the decision of the Employer/client as to whether the deliveries/ construction works have been so resumed shall be final & conclusive

9. Resolution of Disputes: -

- i. It will be NID Assam's endeavor to resolve amicably any disputes or differences that may arise between NID, Assam and the contractor from misconstruing the meaning and operation of the Quotation and the breach that may result.
- ii. In case of Dispute or difference arising between NID, Assam and the Contractor relating to any matter arising out of or connected with this agreement, such disputes or difference shall be settled in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The Arbitrators shall be chosen by mutual discussion between NID, Assam and the contractor OR in case of disagreement each party may appoint an arbitrator and such arbitrators may appoint an Umpire before entering on the reference. The decision of the Umpire shall be final.
- iii. The Bidder shall continue work under the Contract during the arbitration proceedings unless otherwise. directed in writing by NID, Assam or unless the matter is such that the work cannot possibly be continued until the decision of the Arbitrator, or the umpire is obtained.
